DECLARES STORY WAS INCORRECT

John Kelly Says Report he Expected to Get Saloon License Was Not True.

DID NOT CIRCULATE PETITION

Neither Was Story he Was Assessed or Paid Any Part of Expenses The Truth.

John Kelly, former street commissioner, who was one of the seven men mentioned in a story published in the Daily Republican Saturday, March 6, as being the seven men, according to report, from which six would be selected to get saloon licenses in case the city is voted "wet" March 30, requests that a correction be made as to himself, because he says his name was used "in a false and defamatory manner."

He declares in his request for a correction that he was not one of 6 men who were alleged to be picked in advance for saloon licenses, so the story was evidently on false report.

Mr. Kelly says that the intimation that he circulated a petition for signers to call the local option election, the charge that he was one of the men bearing the brunt of the work necessary toward having an election called for Rushville and that he was a witness before the commissioners as to the sufficiency of certain names on the petition are "false, libelous and defamatory."

Mr. Kelly further declares that the statements regarding him "are injurious to his standing in the city of Rushville and the community; that the above false statements which have been made by such publication is an injury to the said John Kelly."

The Republican committed an error in stating that Mr. Kelly or John Gantner circulated petitions to obtain signatures, were witnesses as to the sufficiency of the signatures before the commissioners, expected to get saloon licenses if the city voted "wet" and were assessed or paid any sum to help defray the expense of having the election called.

The Republican published the report as such in good faith but is glad to make full reparation for any damage which has been done to the injured persons.

ARE DETERMINED TO TAKE SMYRNA

Allied Naval Forces Reinforced by Six Warships and City is Expected to Fall

TRIUMPH HAD TO WITHDRAW

(By United Press.)
London, March 13.—A determined effort to take Smyrna, chief city of Asiatic Turkey, is now being made by the allied naval forces. Six warships from the allied fleet at the Dardanelles have reinforced by Rear Admiral Peirz's squadron. The city may fall before many hours.

Among the warships sent to Smyrna was the battleship Triumph, stated Athens dispatches. As in the Dardanelles fighting, the Triumph was sent to the head of the fighting line. She shelled the Smyrna forts several hours before a Turkish shell exploded on her decks and forced her to withdraw. The damage was slight.

A boy was born last night to the wife of Wilbur Meek in Milroy.

COMMITTEE WILL REPORT

One Appointed to Make Nomination For Chamber of Commerce.

A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of Rush county will be held in the court house assembly room next Monday evening at seven-thirty o'clock for the purpose of hearing the report of the nominating committee appointed at the annual meeting of the body. The report will be presented subject to the ratification of the members and it is important that every member be there.

CASEY IS GIVEN 60 DAYS AND $90 FINE

Novel Method is Pursued by Jury in Reaching Verdict When one Juror Holds Out.

DECISION NEAR THE LIMIT

The jury hearing the case of the state against Newton Casey on a charge of associating came within ten dollars of giving him the maximum fine under the law. The jury found him guilty and assessed a fine of $90 and added sixty days in the county jail. The maximum under the law is $100 fine and sixty days in jail. The jury was out only about forty minutes and found him guilty on the first ballot. The only question was the amount of the fine.

The jury used a novel plan of determining the amount of the fine and jail sentence. One man, it is understood, held out for a fifty dollar fine and a jail sentence of thirty days. The jury was unable to agree and as a final resort each man voted on the fine and jail sentence and then the average was taken. The average was ninety dollars fine and fifty-nine and one-half days. As the law does not take half days into consideration the jail sentence was placed at sixty days.

E. C. MILLER TAKEN INTO LAW FIRM

Rushville Man Becomes Partner of Well Known Attorneys in Indianapolis.

IN OFFICE OVER TWO YEARS

The Indianapolis law firm of Denny & Denny will hereafter be known as Denny and Miller, it became known here today, because Eugene C. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller of this city, has become a member of the firm, which is now composed of himself, Caleb S. Denny, former mayor of Indianapolis, and his son, George Denny, former city councilman in Indianapolis.

Mr. Miller has been highly successful since entering the Indianapolis law office two years ago last November. He was graduated from the Rushville high school in 1904, from Indiana university in 1908, and after a year abroad, graduated at Harvard in June, 1912.

The law firm with which he has become affiliated is composed of two men who take an active part in the affairs of Indianapolis. Caleb S. Denny is at present president of the Indianapolis Church Federation and his son is president of the Boys club and has taken an active interest in other public affairs. Denny and Miller have offices on the sixth floor of Lemeke Annex building.

Mrs. Demarchus C. Brown Says Aesthetic Movement he Founded Left Its Impress.

LECTURES AT GRAHAM SCHOOL

Recalls His Lecture Tour of United States When he Visited Indianapolis.

Oscar Wilde, writer of comedies, whose life was a tragedy, was portrayed by Mrs. Demarchus C. Brown of Indianapolis in one of her series of lectures here last night at the Graham school assembly room.

She told of his eccentric days at Oxford, the methods he employed to get into the exclusive set and of his lecture tour in the United States when he was sent here by the manager of a Filbert & Sullivan opera as the chief exponent of the aesthetic in life of his time.

Mrs. Brown recalled his lecture in Indianapolis February 23, 1882. She said that Indianapolis newspapers of that date stated that when he appeared on the stage he was "greeted in a tender murmur of applause." Mrs. Brown read a letter written by a literary friend of hers which was largely descriptive of the appearance of Wilde.

Mrs. Brown said that the ideas of art that prevail today are largely due to the influence of Wilde and his crowd because his ideas stamped themselves so on the nineties that the impression of them is still felt. She declared that his influence was seen in many ways today. She asserted that the whole movement made people see the ridiculousness of clothes and house furnishings as they once were.

Mrs. Brown said that Wilde's life always came before his work and that he was an Irishman, which was his chief misfortune, because the Irish people were unpopular in England about the time he came into being.

Mrs. Brown said that Wilde lived in plenty as a youth, but soon after he left Oxford he became hard pressed for money and was poor most of the time during his life with the exception of a few years of opulence when his first comedy met with such success.

The lecturer declared that it was often said that if Wilde had not been so fond of poetry and Italian art he probably would not have come to such a sad end.

"He was always a little unsuccessful of reaching the height to which he aspired," continued the lecturer. "He published a book of poems soon after leaving Oxford. His great problem was how to make an impression on the hard enamel of English society. He became leader of the aesthetic crowd as a means of attracting attention and possibly to get him the position he desired."

Mrs. Brown described how he appeared in London, dressed in a velvet suit of short pants, lace collars and cuffs, and carrying a flower in his hand, at which he stopped and looked at tenderly frequently as he went through the streets. In a few days, Mrs. Brown said, his poetry leaped into the fourth edition. He had found, she declared, that he could not make the people listen to him until he had made them laugh.

She said that the aesthetic crowd, led by Wilde, hammered away at the English customs—the hard, wooden houses, the large flowered carpets and wall paper and the women's ugly bussels. The aesthetes insisted, she pointed out, that clothes should hang from the shoulder, bringing into

Valuation of Land and Personal Property in Rush Not up With Rest of State.

AVERAGE LAND VALUE $26.30

State Tax Board Prepares Tabulated Summary Giving Interesting Taxation Figures.

The state tax board has prepared a tabulated summary of Indiana farm land valuation which shows that the average for the state is $26.30 an acre. In Rush county the average farm land assessment per acre is $39.90, which is above the average but not near the highest average for a county.

In this county horses and mules, the report shows, average $104 a head and cattle $43.40 each. The average assessed value of a hog is $8 and a sheep $5.40. The average in Rush county for automobiles is $245, whereas the average for the average for the state is $334. The average in the county on farm implements is $64 and household furniture $50.

The $26.30 an acre includes the farmhouses, and all other such "improvements." The state tax board does not accompany this report of assessed valuation, with any estimate of true valuation. Generally, however, the $26.30 will be accepted as not more than 40 per cent. of the true value—and possibly nearly 33 per cent., at least in some sections of the state.

Marion county heads the list at $62.50. Benton county, one of the best corn and grass counties in the state, stands next with $52. Boone county, once a county of swamps, chills and fever, has been redeemed until it is now in the "honor roll," the assessed valuation of the farms in the "State of Boone" being $45 per acre. Clinton county drops in at $44.50; Hancock county comes along at $43.40, while Shelby slips over at $42.2.

The average value of farm land for taxes is only $23.30 per acre, the values including all improvements. The value of the land in adjoining counties is also of local interest for comparison purposes. Decatur county, with its hills and hollows, stone roads and farms par excellent, averages, $32.1 per acre. Bartholomew, a county bounded by the worst in Decatur, a smidgen of Jennings and a lot of Brown, is assessed at $33.5 per acre, indicating there are many fine farms in the county. Johnson pays on $41.1. Brown county is pretty far down in the list at $5.1.

Automobiles "stack up" a little better than farm land, the average assessment of the machines being $33.4.

BOARD ELECTS OFFICERS.

The newly elected board of directors for the Rushville Social club have formed their organization by electing Frank Capp, president; Scott Buell, first vice-president; Frank Wilson, second vice-president; Will E. Havens, treasurer and Melvin Moor, secretary. The president has appointed the house committee as follows: Harrie Jones, Ab Denning and Walter Capp. The directors of the club are elected by the stock holders and they in turn select their own officials.

The women of the First Presbyterian church will give a buffet luncheon in the basement of the church Saturday noon, March 20. On that day teachers of the sixth district will be here for a meeting.

JAP WEBB DIES IN MARION

Former Local Man Succumbs From Apoplexy in Hospital There.

Word was received here this afternoon of the death of Jasper Webb in the hospital in Marion, Ind. Mr. Webb suffered a stroke of apoplexy yesterday and died about one o'clock this afternoon. He was born and reared here and is a brother of Selman, Sam and Bert Webb of this city. He was fifty-one years old. He had lived in Marion for several years. The remains will probably be brought here Monday afternoon for burial.

COUNTY ASSESSOR HAS NEW POSITION

He Becomes Inheritance Tax Appraisers Under Act Passed by Legislature.

BOOKS TURNED OVER TODAY

Henry Schrader, county assessor, is preparing to take up his duties as inheritance tax appraiser as provided in a law passed by the legislature and which contained an emergency clause. A. L. Riggs, who was appointed to the position by Judge Sparks on January 1, turned over the books to the county assessor today.

The law is not generally known here as no copies have ever been received. It is understood that the law was passed as an economical measure and the question of whether Mr. Schrader gets any additional salary for his work in this office is not known. Under the old law the inheritance tax appraisers received $5 for every day he worked. It is understood that under the new law the Judge is compelled to appoint the county assessor. Mr. Schrader was not anxious to take this additional position but stated that if it was the law there was nothing else for him to do.

SOLD ALUMINUM TO MAYOR'S WIFE

That Caused Downfall of R. M. Lipscomb, Salesman, Who Had to Pay Peddler's License.

DOLLAR DOWN WITH ORDER

R. M. Lipscomb was arrested this afternoon on a charge brought under the city ordinance governing peddlers. Lipscomb was delivering aluminum ware that had been ordered the first part of the week. He collected at each house where an order had been taken upon the delivery and the city officials believe this constituted a sale.

Lipscomb, when he delivered the aluminum ware to Mrs. C. L. Bebout, did not know she was the wife of Mayor Bebout. It was in this manner that his arrest was caused. Lipscomb paid the license fee under protest and went ahead doing business. The local officials are determined to arrest every peddler hitting the city and if the city ordinance is wrong then it is up to the council to make the change. The local merchants have demanded the enforcement and from now on all peddlers failing to get a license will be arrested.

HARRY K. THAW WINS VICTORY

Jury Today Acquits Him of Charge of Conspiracy to Escape From Matteawan.

NEXT STEP IS IMPORTANT

Argument on Motion That May Bring Freedom For White's Slayer Will Start Monday.

(By United Press.)
New York, March 13.—Harry K. Thaw won a most important victory today in his battle for freedom when a jury acquitted him of the charge of conspiring to escape from the asylum for criminal insane at Matteawan. Argument will be heard Monday on a motion that may free the slayer of Stanford White.

The verdict was returned at 12:20 this afternoon after the jury had been out about nineteen hours. Thaw went back to the Tombs supremely confident. He asserted his attorneys would win the fight to have him returned to the jurisdiction of the new Hampshire courts—a move that would automatically give him freedom.

The ending of the conspiracy trial created a tumult in the court room. The sheriff of New York county and John Lanyon, head of a detective agency employed by the district attorney's office, exchanged blows under Justice Page's bench.

Lanyon was taken into custody and rushed to the Tombs on order of Justice Page. The sheriff, reported to have struck the first blow, was summoned to the justice's chamber.

LARGE CROWD AT MILROY

Bargains Offered by Merchants Attracts Many People.

A large crowd was attracted to Milroy today for the second day of the bargain sales offered by the merchants. Special bargains were offered by all the live merchants of the town. The plan was similar to the Big Wednesday idea worked so successfully in Rushville. Free picture shows and band concerts were on the program. One of the features this afternoon was the combination sale held by the Milroy Sales company. Thirty head of horses, ten head of cattle and thirty head of hogs were entered in the sale. Over forty automobiles were parked there at noon today and the crowd was the largest ever assembled in Milroy.

The teachers of Orange, Anderson and Walker township held their institute today in Homer.

A See-America Summer

This will be the greatest season Canadian and United States summer resorts have ever known.

Millions of dollars usually spent abroad will be distributed at home.

One great resort region on the Canadian border is already booked to capacity.

It is a season when newspaper advertising will be unusually effective, because more people will be studying the advertising to see where to go.

Summer resorts and railroads will find their newspaper appropriations unusually profitable.

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

We have faith in our ability as ractical designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer.

fashion the long clinging gowns.

The first lecture of his American tour was in New York. She told how he turned the tables on some Harvard freshmen who appeared at his lecture in Boston dressed in the aesthetic costumes. Wilde appeared in evening clothes when he heard of the trick. She said he had the nerve to compliment an audience of miners at Denver on their aesthetic costumes.

He said of America that its people lacked imagination, and little wonder at that because they set up as their national hero a man who never told a lie. Mrs. Brown said. As years went by he took up different phases of himself, the lecturer said.

His brilliant career came to a sad end when he was fined and sentenced to two years in a London prison just after he had become immensely popular by writing four brilliant plays. The first of the four was "Lady Windermere's Fan," which appeared in Indianapolis Friday and Saturday, January 15 and 16, in three performances, with Margaret Anglin as Mrs. Erlynne. The play was written twenty-two years ago. Wilde was convicted for corrupting the morals of some young friends. He died three years after he was released from prison.

LET'S GET TOGETHER ON THIS SILO SITUATION

I want to talk to every farmer around here who is planning on building a Silo this year. I can help you choose the kind of a Silo you need to feed your stock. According to my way of thinking, there is just one real silo made—and that's the SAGINAW SAGINAW SILOS are Steel-built. They stand up against wind storms. They are air tight. They give sweet, clean succulent silage all the way through. A SAGINAW SILO will bring you more profit on the farm. By all means let me tell you about the SAGINAW SILO before you decide on a Silo. Let's get together.

The House the Red Jacket Saved

Read This Letter:

"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap set length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect. Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

Why People Read Ads

Suddenly ask twenty people why they read the advertisements in this paper every week and fifteen out of the twenty will probably hesitate, and stammer, and become more or less embarrassed before they can call to mind the real reason why they read the ads.

People buy this paper and read it for two very simple reasons—they want to know the news of their home community, and they want to know of the commercial advantages that are placed before them each week in its advertising columns.

This paper goes out six times each week to an enlightened people—to a people who are accustomed to think and act for themselves—to a people who know exactly what they want,

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder is troubling you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over-worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

and want to know where they can get it.

Hence the natural course for them to pursue in their search for information is to turn to the advertising columns of the paper.

The live merchant knows this—recognizes the fact that he is catering to a people of high mental attainments, and shapes his business policy to meet their commercial desires.

Such merchants live, and prosper, and grow with the community.

Their advertisements are constantly placing the desirability of their goods before the buyer, and the merchant is thus brought into contact with the buyer through the medium of his advertisement.

The information contained in the advertisement saves the buyer the time of chasing from place to place in search of some article of which he stands in need.

It thus becomes a time saver to the buyer, and an impulse which spurs him on to a constant perusing of the advertising pages of the paper.

This habit of reading the advertisements is growing upon the people day by day, for the public realizes that it is the one and only sure means of reducing the "killing of time" to a minimum.

These are strenuous days, and time is money, and the well written advertisement becomes a thing of great value to the consumer as well as to the seller.

And of late years the consumer has become educated up to the standard of expecting the merchant who wants his trade to talk to him through the medium of his advertisement in the local paper.

And the merchant who talks thusly does the business.

Will the Turks Be Driven Out of Europe?

With the British and French warships pounding Turkey's fortifications in the Dardanelles a new and, possibly, the most decisive phase of the war is at hand.

If the Allies' fleet should succeed in reaching Constantinople it is asserted that Turkey's powers of resistance would be near an end. The Black Sea would be open to the Allies, and their decisive victory would have a great effect upon the Balkan States.

Will the Great Mosque of St. Sophia Again Resound to the Chant of Christian Hymns After the Lapse of Centuries?

Will the Holy Places of Palestine Be Dominated by Christianity?

How such contingencies fill the imagination!

These and a host of other speculations arise as the world absorbs the news of the bombarding of the Dardanelles. You must read THE LITERARY DIGEST for March 13th and learn all the details of the forcing of these—practically the last strongholds of Mohammedanism in Europe.

But this is only one of the features that will prompt you to buy the DIGEST this week.

Treated in text and picture you will find also the public opinion of America and Europe as reflected in their statesmen's utterances, and in their newspaper press, on the Allies' Embargo on Neutral Imports Into Germany and Austria; America's Attitude Toward Britain's Blockade Declaration; Germany's Answer to Our Protest; the whole subject treated in the most impartial and comprehensive manner.

And to the peaceful pursuits of life this favorite weekly also devotes careful attention. All the important news in those subjects which lie close to humanity—Politics, Science, Invention, Religion, Art, Literature, Music, Drama, Sports, Trade, and Commerce, are presented in captivating style.

YOU WILL ENJOY IT---FOR THERE'S NOTHING BETTER

"THE LITERARY DIGEST is a time-saver, a money-saver, and a worry-saver. I know of nothing better in the periodical field, and I always recommend it to my friends."

STUNTS PLANNED FOR HURTY BANQUET

"Typhoid Mary" Will be Uninvited
Guest at Feast Honoring Health Secretary Tonight.

MICROBE TO BE PRESENT, TOO

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 13.—Dr. J. N. Hurty today had rounded out twenty consecutive years of service as state health commissioner. Tonight his friends in Indiana and other states will unite at a banquet in the Claypool hotel to do him honor. Governor Ralston will serve as toast-master and one of the distinguished visitors will be President Vaughn of the American Medical Association.

From some where word leaked out that the guests tonight would be surprised by some novel stunts complimentary to Dr. Hurty. It is said that when the diners have reached the meat course four stalwart waiters will march in bearing a huge dead microbe on a platter. Through the microbe's gizzard will be thrust a two-edged sword, and on the microbe's breast will be pinned the notice: "Dr. Hurty killed me."

"Typhoid Mary" will appear as an uninvited guest and will lay at each plate the sinister words "Typhoid-Death!" A huge microscope will appear. He will see "Typhoid-Mary," beckon to "Law" and together they and they are ready for your inspection and we extend you an invitation to call and look them over this week as it will be to your interest to make your selection between now and the closing day of our Opening. We will explain why when you come in. We have the finest buggies ever placed on a sample floor and we want you to look them over. If you need a Storm Buggy this is the correct place to get what you want. We are not selling them at a reduction of $25.00, however, but we are selling them just the same as we have all season at $100.00. We have always said that our price was just as low at any time as the cut prices of our competitors, and we are always ready to do as we advertise. When a merchant advertises he has made a cut of $25.00 on a buggy use a little common sense in forming an opinion about this like the fellow that was in a state of coma, and his friends thought he was dead, but before time to bury him he showed signs of life. When he rallied enough to talk his friends asked him how it seemed to be dead. "Dead," he exclaimed, "I knew all the time what was going on and I knew I wasn't dead, too, because my feet were cold and I was hungry and I knew that if I was in heaven I wouldn't be hungry and if I was in the other place my feet wouldn't be cold. Now if you will study out 99 per cent of the cut price argument you will see just about as much to them as there is in this little story. In other words, somebody has to be the goat, and the man that takes $25.00 off of a buggy during a sale must have a lot on when he is selling regular. Buy your buggies where the price is always the same and as low as any cut price sale ever advertised in Rush County. Let the other fellow be the goat this time.

REMEMBER OUR OPENING MARCH 12-13 AND BE SURE AND COME.

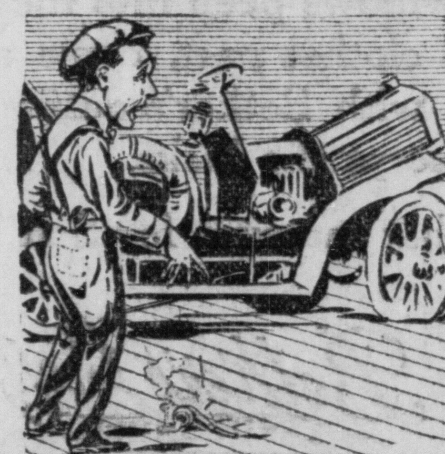

WILL SPIVEY, at Oneal Bros

will hustle the spectator out.

"Old Ben Zoats" will appear on crutches, it is said, and there will be a striking contrast between Miss Indiana of 1896 when Dr. Hurty took charge of the state's health, and in 1915.

NOT MUCH DOPE ON PIRATE CREW

Lineup of Clarke's Pittsburgh Team Remains Uncertain Despite all Kinds of Rumors

WAGNER MAY PLAY FIRST BASE

Rebel Oakes Has Plenty of Men for His Fed Team But They Are Not Known

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Pittsburgh, Mar. 12.—Clarke and his Pirates—the Pirates before Clarke for that matter—have always been the last of the big league teams to go south when the robins began to chirp and the fans to inquire anxiously about the possibilities of a rise in the price of pop. Consequently, it was generally well into March before any definite idea as to the lineup of the team could be doped out.

This year promises to be an exception in that respect. The prospect is that it will be the middle of April before very much is known. Hans Wagner is going to play again. But where is uncertain. The aforesaid dopesters are certain that the Flying Dutchman will let his sails flap about the CC—meaning Cemetery Corner, alias first base. Barney Dreyfuss agrees with the dopesters to the extent that he thinks this possible. Fred Clarke opines there is more than a chance that Wagner may wag in that charming spot. As for Wagner—nobody home.

And there is still Hinchman, late of Columbus, O. Hinchman will play in right field. That is just as certain as it is that Wagner will play first place. As for the others:

Carey will play in the field. Viox will play somewhere. Adams will and Gibson will catch. Several others will pitch and catch. And others will play bases and field positions. But who they are and what they will do are questions.

The Pirates this year is to be an "experimental team." What this means is conjectural. Pittsburghers hope that it means the Pirates will get somewhere above the bellline in the percentage column. Further than that they have been given no grounds for hope.

Whatever its record in the field may be, the first-to-last-in-two months aggregation has the long-distance pennant cinched again. It is the most-traveled team in the major league circuits, chiefly because of its half-way position between east and west on the map. Some fans say that were it not so long on the Pullman and diner suit it might be more than half-way in its position in the percentage column.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

However, they aren't running the team.

Careful, censoring of war-plans shows that the team will "do the usual" in the line playing at home on Saturday, jumping to some foreign country—Cincinnati, St. Louis or Chicago—for Sunday games and back for the beginning of an at-home series on Monday.

The rebels scored on the Pirates when it came to announcing their roster. While there doubtless will be some of the 25 whose names were given out by Manager Oakes in Pittsburgh whose service will be used, the Feds, just now, look like this: Rebel Oakes manager, Homer, La.; Hugh Bradley, f. b. Worcester, Mass.; David Jones, l. f., Detroit, Mich.; Edward Lennox, t. b. Camden, N. J.; James Savage, r. f. Plantsville, Conn.; Stephen Yerks, ss., Millvale, N. J.; Jack Lewis, s. b., Steubenville, O.; Edward Holly, ss., Rochester, N. Y.; Michael Menoskey, c. f., Flint, Mich.; Ken J. Rheam, f. b., Bellevue, Ill.; Ralph Mattis, c. f. Roxborough Pa.; Claude Berry, c., Lynn, Ind.; Elmer Knetzer, p., Greenville, Tex.; George Le Clair, p., Farnham, Quebec; Edward Konectehy, f. b., St. Louis; Wm D. Perritt p., Riceland, La.; Pat O'Connor, c., Windsor Locks, Conn.; Bunny Hearne p., Chapel Hill, N. C.; Frank Allen, p., Newborn, Ala.; Frank Delehanty, c., Cleveland; James Austin t. b., Cleveland; Martin Berghammer, ss., Pittsburgh.

Ed Konectehy, Pirate first baseman last year; "Fol" Perritt, pitcher for the St. Louis Nationals last year; Pat O'Connor, Bunny Hearne, Frank Allen, Jimmy Austin and Martin Berghammer are new to the Rebel list. Several are recruits picked up by Fedcounts and it is said that several more will join the team when it goes south.

NEWCASTLE LOST TO EVANSVILLE

Team From This District Put Out of Running in First Game—Score Was 31 to 23.

HAAS TOO FAST FOR GUARDS

The Newcastle high school team, representing this district at the state tournament at Bloomington was defeated by the fast Evansville team 31 to 23. By defeating Newcastle Evansville looms up as a contender for the state championship honors. This is not because the team defeated Newcastle, as there were many teams in the tournament stronger than Newcastle, but because of the form displayed. The Newcastle guards were not fast enough for Haas, the Evansville center. Newcastle fought hard but the team was slightly out-classed. The game was marked by splendid dribbling, passing and a whole lot of fighting spirit.

DIRECTORS MEET SUNDAY

Officials of Club Will Meet With Manager Davidson.

The directors of the baseball team will meet tomorrow with Manager Davidson and discuss plans for the coming season. MRS. ROB M'CRORY DIES AT GLENWOOD

Expires at Midnight After Illness of Only Three Days Suffering With Pneumonia.

LEAVES HUSBAND AND SON

Mrs. Robert McCrory, 68 years old, died last midnight at her home in Glenwood, after a three days' illness from pneumonia. Mrs. McCrory was well known in both Rush and Fayette counties and her death came as a surprise to her many friends. Mrs. McCrory was born in Fayette county, a short distance from Glenwood July 9, 1846. She is survived by her husband and one son, Harry McCrory.

The funeral services will be conducted Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Fairview church and burial will take place in the cemetery there. Friends may call Sunday any time after nine o'clock. The casket will not be opened at the church.

SALE CLOSSES AT CAMBRIDGE CITY

Horse Auction is One of Most Successful in History and Stock is Exceptional.

SALES OF INTEREST HERE

The annual Lackey sale closed at Cambridge City yesterday afternoon. It was the most successful horse auction ever held at the Lackey barns. A large number of Rushville and Rush county men attended during the sale and bought and sold horses. The bidding at the closing day was said to be very lively. Nearly three hundred horses were sold and the stock offered was of exceptional quality. The following sales made the closing day will be of interest in Rush county.

Zulu Maid, a trotter, 2:16 1/4, by Major Guethlein, consigned by E. E. Post, Liberty, Ind., went to Dick Wilson, Rushville Ind., on a bid of $900.

Royal Ward, a pacer, 2:12 by John Ward, consigned by Clyarke Ganse, Carthage, Ind., went to J. T. Flack, Page, N. D., for $330.

SERIES OF ROADS ARE BEING BUILT

New Part of East Hill Cemetery to be Improved With Water-Bound Macadam Highways.

ONE GRADE WILL BE CUT DOWN

A series of water-bound macadam roads is being constructed in the new part of the East Hill cemetery. When completed the new part will have as good if not better driveways than the old section. The cemetery association has given the contract to Wilk and Company, with Will Dill as engineer in charge. The work has been in progress five days. The grading of two roads just south of the bridge is one of the important features. One grade will be cut down five feet and the dirt from this will be used to fill on the other.

The main road will be extended to the southwest entrance to the new addition. The engineer believed that the new section of the cemetery with the new roads will prove the most beautiful in East Hill. The cemetery board has also decided to plat additional ground in the new part and many more lots will be added to the cemetery.

Don't complain of that chafing when "Raymond Chap" will cure it. 312t18.

OLIVER

THAT tried and true public favorite, the No. 11 Oliver Sully Plow.

In everything made, there are some good, a few better and one best.

From one end of the country to the other, the No. 11 James Oliver Sully Plow is and has long been recognized as the one best.

It is simple, light in draft, reliable, reasonable in price, and notable for its clean, smooth, even work in all soils.

Its turning and scouring qualities are admirable, is always hungry for the ground, and plows a back furrow to perfection. Steel and Oliver Chilled Metal bases—the top notch of efficiency and wonderful wearing qualities.

A plow that thousands swear by and nobody swears at. Let us show it to you—as well as anything else in the plow or cultivator line you need or may need soon.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring back color, thickness and lustre—Everybody is using it again.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

LAND QUESTION UP FOR HEARING

Commission on Industrial Relations
Will Take Up Important Things
at Dallas Meeting.

26 QUALIFIED WITNESSES

Bitter Struggle Has Been on For
Years Between Landlord and
Tenant Classes

BY CHAS. W. HOLMAN
(Special Agent in Charge, Dallas
Land Hearings, U. S. Commission on Industrial Relations.)

(Written for United Press.)
Dallas, Tex., Mar. 13.—Is a pernicious landlordism springing up in America? Is a permanent tenant farmer class to be looked for as a development of the coming years? Or will corporations, farm operations and the real farmer class will be unskilled laborers working in large gangs on "efficiency systems?" These are among the important questions that will be asked by the United States Commission on Industrial Relations in the hearings on the American land question, scheduled to begin here Monday morning. The hearings will continue for five days and 25 qualified witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear.

In some ways this will be the most unique of the commission's hearings. It is the first time that any official body of the federal government has recognized the importance of the United States developing a national policy with regard to the land just as older nations and the colonies of the British empire have already done. It marks the advent of the tenant farmer as a recognized part of the industrial struggle, classifying him with labor as a laborer. It calls for realization by the general public that in the United States there is a rapid concentration of ownership of lands into the hands of a limited number and that absentee landlordism is growing apace. It will develop with startling vividness the fact that it is not so much how to "get back to the land" that will trouble the people as how to get back the land. The hearings have been set for the Southwest, because in this section the land problem has reached its most acute stage in America, and a reaction against landlordism has already begun. In the Southwest also the tenant farmers have been increasing twice as fast as the home-owning farmers, and there are a number of counties of almost entirely white population where the percentage of tenant farmers to the whole will run higher than 68.

For several years Texas and Oklahoma have been the scene of a silent, but bitter struggle between landlord and tenant classes, and a decided movement has come about to raise the rents. The tenants have resisted and formed class conscious unions to resist what they have come to regard as landlord encroachments. In Texas alone, there are about 236,000 tenant families, three-fourths of whom are native whites.

The commission will study the relation of the floating tenant farmer to the flating or casual laborer. The body will also take up such questions as the fleeing of the working population on farms by exorbitant interest charges, the prevalence of violence, strikes, peonage, interracial competition among whites, negroes, Mexicans and other immigrants of foreign extraction.

The movement of farm labor, and better methods of distributing it, the influence of modern farm machinery, the possibilities of successful farming operations on a large scale, are among the subjects upon which the commissioners will seek light. And in addition to the industrial issues, the commissioners will endeavor to obtain a vivid conception of the actual tenant conditions, and the tenant's point of view, by means of life stories of tenant farmers themselves.

Witnesses have been chosen to represent the points of view of the militant tenant farmer, the conservative tenant, the landlord, the public official the disinterested observer and the trained economist. The following witnesses have been chosen for the set hearings:

Monday, March 15—Charles W. Holman, Madison, Wisconsin, special investigator of the land question for the commission, and member of the staff of the University of Wisconsin. Holman was a resident of Texas for 19 years and for seven years was staff correspondent for a large farm journal of the southwest.

E. W. Kirkpatrick, McKinney, Tex., president of the Texas Industrial Congress former president of the Texas Farmers' Congress, connected with a large nursery concern, owner of farming lands, and pioneer organizer of farmers associations. He began life as a tenant farmer. He is today a landlord.

James E. Ferguson, Austin, Texas, Governor of Texas. Born in Bell county, on a farm, for many years a banker, he became governor, as a result of a sensational campaign in which the land question was a dominant issue. Advocated a law to legalize a fixed rent of one-fourth of the cotton and one-third of the grain where landlords furnish only land and house. He is president of a bank, owner of a ranch in Bosque county, and a landlord.

R. W. Getzendaner, Waxahachie, Texas; Larger holder of lands in Ellis county, where the landlord and tenant struggle has reached a tenacity.

Prof. W. E. Leonard, Austin, Texas. Members of the department of political economy, University of Texas. Special investigator for the university of landlord and tenant conditions.

Arthur LeSeu, Ft. Scott, Kans., President People's College, and a prominent socialist.

Tuesday, March 16.—Prof Charles B. Austin, Austin, Texas; graduate student of the University of Wisconsin, now head of the welfare bureau of the University of Texas Extension division. Has made a field study of landlord and tenant conditions in certain counties of Texas.

Judge E. O. Meitzen, Hallettsville, Texas; Publisher of the New Era, and former secretary of the Renters' Union of America. He is actively identified with the land struggle.

W. S. Noble, Rockdale, Texas, Tenant farmer. Now secretary of the Land League, the successor to the Renters' Union. He was a candidate for lieutenant governor of Texas in 1914 on the socialist platform.

Pat Nagle, Kingfisher, Oklahoma; Lawyer, editor of the militant organ "The Tenant Farmer," representative of tenant interests.

Wednesday, March 17.—E. J. Giddings, Oklahoma City, Okla.; A lawyer, former attorney for a tenant farmer organization to resist usury practices, ran for attorney general of Oklahoma with a usury plank to make usury matters a criminal court proceedings, and is identified with organized labor.

W. L. Thurman, Sulphur, Okla.; Representative of militant tenant farmer interests, a farmer, and organizer of the socialist party.

J. Tom Pagitt, Dallas, Texas, Owner of a large tract of farming land in Coleman county, Texas, on which there are a number of tenant families.

C. A. Rives, Ryan, Okla., former manager of Pagitt property in Coleman county, Texas.

W. H. Faircloth, Leaday, Texas; formerly tenant farmer on Pagitt estate in Coleman county, Texas.

Thursday, March 19 Emilio Flores, San Antonio, Tex., sec'y. of Mexican Protective society, an organization to help Mexican laborers and to protect them against peonage and mal treatment.

Prof. Chas H. Alvord, Gregory, Texas; superintendent of farms, of the Coleman Fulton Pasture company, which represents the Charles P. Taft industrial interests in Texas. Was formerly a professor of dairy husbandry, in the Agricultural and Mechanical college of Texas, College Station.

Joseph F. Green, of Gregory, Tex., general manager of the Taft ranch interests in Texas, also lessor or large ranching property in South Texas.

Dale Walker, Gregory, Texas; Owner of a cotton gin.

Prof. L. H. Haney, Austin, Tex.; Head of the department of economics, University of Texas and author of works in the field of economics. He is a student of Texas credit conditions.

GIVES DEFENDANT SOME MORE TIME

Special Judge Miller Allows W. O. Andrews Another Change to Make Showing in Court.

HE IS CITED FOR CONTEMPT

The contempt proceedings brought by Hazel Andrews against Wm. Orval Andrews was heard today in the circuit court. B. F. Miller was appointed special judge to hear the case as Judge Sparks was counsel in the original divorce suit. Judge Miller heard the evidence and continued the hearing until March 27 in order to give the defendant time to make a better showing.

Mrs. Andrews was granted a divorce from him, and according to the decree, was to receive the sum of $1.50 a week for the support of their child. She alleges that he has paid to the clerk of the court the sum of $14 and that now he owes her $67. Andrews was cited to appear and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court.

By agreement Judge Sparks found for James A. Bowman against the estate of Mary J. Bowman in the sum of $1,100 and assessed the costs against the estate.

CROWDS TODAY SET SOME NEW RECORDS

People Throng Oneal Brothers Store at Second Day of Annual Opening.

MINSTREL SHOW ENTERTAINS

One of the largest crowds ever in attendance at the annual openings of Oneal Brothers thronged the place this afternoon. The interior of the large implement store was arranged in an attractive manner, showing the displays to great advantage. During the afternoon Ed Folsom of Indianapolis staged a minstrel show with a troupe which he imported from Indianapolis.

Every known farm implement was on display and a large business resulted from the two days' display. Music was furnished this afternoon from a player piano and soft drinks were passed out to all attending. The firm expected today's sales to break all records.

DECLARES STORY WAS INCORRECT

John Kelly Says Report he Expected to Get Saloon License Was Not True.

DID NOT CIRCULATE PETITION

Neither Was Story he Was Assessed or Paid Any Part of Expenses The Truth.

John Kelly, former street commissioner, who was one of the seven men mentioned in a story published in the Daily Republican Saturday, March 6, as being the seven men, according to report, from which six would be selected to get saloon licenses in case the city is voted "wet" March 30, requests that a correction be made as to himself, because he says his name was used "in a false and defamatory manner."

He declares in his request for a correction that he was not one of 6 men who were alleged to be picked in advance for saloon licenses, so the story was evidently on false report.

Mr. Kelly says that the intimation that he circulated a petition for signatures to call the local option election, the charge that he was one of the men bearing the brunt of the work necessary toward having an election called for Rushville and that he was a witness before the commissioners as to the sufficiency of certain names on the petition are "false, libelous and defamatory."

Mr. Kelly further declares that the statements regarding him "are injurious to his standing in the city of Rushville and the community; that the above false statements which have been made by such publication is an injury to the said John Kelly."

The Republican committed an error in stating that Mr. Kelly or John Gantner circulated petitions to obtain signatures, were witnesses as to the sufficiency of the signatures before the commissioners, expected to get saloon licenses if the city voted "wet" and were assessed or paid any sum to help defray the expense of having the election called.

The Republican published the report as such in good faith but is glad to make full reparation for any damage which has been done to the injured persons.

ARE DETERMINED TO TAKE SMYRNA

Allied Naval Forces Reinforced by Six Warships and City is Expected to Fall

TRIUMPH HAD TO WITHDRAW

(By United Press.)

London, March 13.—A determined effort to take Smyrna, chief city of Asiatic Turkey, is now being made by the allied naval forces. Six warships from the allied fleet at the Dardanelles have reinforced by Rear Admiral Peirz's squadron. The city may fall before many hours.

Among the warships sent to Smyrna was the battleship Triumph, stated Athens dispatches. As in the Dardanelles fighting, the Triumph was sent to the head of the fighting line. She shelled the Smyrna forts several hours before a Turkish shell exploded on her decks and forced her to withdraw. The damage was slight.

A boy was born last night to the wife of Wilbur Meek in Milroy.

COMMITTEE WILL REPORT

One Appointed to Make Nomination For Chamber of Commerce.

A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of Rush county will be held in the court house assembly room next Monday evening at seven-thirty o'clock for the purpose of hearing the report of the nominating committee appointed at the annual meeting of the body. The report will be presented subject to the ratification of the members and it is important that every member be there.

CASEY IS GIVEN 60 DAYS AND $90 FINE

Novel Method is Pursued by Jury in Reaching Verdict When one Juror Holds Out.

DECISION NEAR THE LIMIT

The jury hearing the case of the state against Newton Casey on a charge of associating came within ten dollars of giving him the maximum fine under the law. The jury found him guilty and assessed a fine of $90 and added sixty days in the county jail. The maximum under the law is $100 fine and sixty days in jail. The jury was out only about forty minutes and found him guilty on the first ballot. The only question was the amount of the fine.

The jury used a novel plan of determining the amount of the fine and jail sentence. One man, it is understood, held out for a fifty dollar fine and a jail sentence of thirty days. The jury was unable to agree and as a final resort each man voted on the fine and jail sentence and then the average was taken. The average was ninety dollars fine and fifty-nine and one-half days. As the law does not take half days into consideration the jail sentence was placed at sixty days.

E. C. MILLER TAKEN INTO LAW FIRM

Rushville Man Becomes Partner of Well Known Attorneys in Indianapolis.

IN OFFICE OVER TWO YEARS

The Indianapolis law firm of Denny & Denny will hereafter be known as Denny and Miller, it became known here today, because Eugene C. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller of this city, has become a member of the firm, which is now composed of himself, Caleb S. Denny, former mayor of Indianapolis, and his son, George Denny, former city councilman in Indianapolis.

Mr. Miller has been highly successful since entering the Indianapolis law office two years ago last November. He was graduated from the Rushville high school in 1904, from Indiana university in 1908, and after a year abroad, graduated at Harvard in June, 1912.

The law firm with which he has become affiliated is composed of two men who take an active part in the affairs of Indianapolis. Caleb S. Denny is at present president of the Indianapolis Church Federation and his son is president of the Boys club and has taken an active interest in other public affairs. Denny and Miller have offices on the sixth floor of Lemeke Annex building.

SEES WILDE'S INFLUENCE YET

Mrs. Demarchus C. Brown Says Aesthetic Movement he Founded Left Its Impress.

LECTURES AT GRAHAM SCHOOL

Recalls His Lecture Tour of United States When he Visited Indianapolis.

Oscar Wilde, writer of comedies, whose life was a tragedy, was portrayed by Mrs. Demarchus C. Brown of Indianapolis in one of her series of lectures here last night at the Graham school assembly room.

She told of his eccentric days at Oxford, the methods he employed to get into the exclusive set and of his lecture tour in the United States when he was sent here by the manager of a Fibbert & Sullivan opera as the chief exponent of the aesthetic in life of his time.

Mrs. Brown recalled his lecture in Indianapolis February 23, 1882. She said that Indianapolis newspapers of that date stated that when he appeared on the stage he was "greeted in a tender manner of applause." Mrs. Brown read a letter written by a literary friend of hers which was largely descriptive of the appearance of Wilde.

Mrs. Brown said that the ideas of art that prevail today are largely due to the influence of Wilde and his crowd because his ideas stamped themselves so on the imaginations that the impression of them is still felt. She declared that his influence was seen in many ways today. She asserted that the whole movement made people see the ridiculousness of clothes and house furnishings as they once were.

Mrs. Brown said that Wilde's life always came before his work and that he was an Irishman, which was his chief misfortune, because the Irish people were unpopular in England about the time he came into being.

Mrs. Brown said that Wilde lived in plenty as a youth, but soon after he left Oxford he became hard pressed for money and was poor most of the time during his life with the exception of a few years of opulence when his first comedy met with such success.

The lecturer declared that it was often said that if Wilde had not been so fond of poetry and Italian art he probably would not have come to such a sad end.

"He was always a little unsuccessful of reaching the heights to which he aspired," continued the lecturer. "He published a book of poems soon after leaving Oxford. His great problem was how to make an impression on the hard enamel of English society. He became leader of the aesthetic crowd as a means of attracting attention and possibly to get him the position he desired."

Mrs. Brown described how he appeared in London, dressed in a velvet suit of short pants, lace collars and cuffs, and carrying a flower in his hand, at which he stopped and looked at tenderly frequently as he went through the streets. In a few days, Mrs. Brown said, his poetry leaped into the fourth edition. He had found, she declared, that he could not make the people listen to him until he had made them laugh.

She said that the aesthetic crowd, led by Wilde, hammered away at the English customs—the hard, wooden houses, the large flowered carpets and wall paper and the women's ugly bussels. The aesthetes insisted, she pointed out, that clothes should hang from the shoulder, bringing into

Valuation of Land and Personal Property in Rush Not up With Rest of State.

AVERAGE LAND VALUE $26.30

State Tax Board Prepares Tabulated Summary Giving Interesting Taxation Figures.

The state tax board has prepared a tabulated summary of Indiana farm land valuation which shows that the average for the state is $26.30 an acre. In Rush county the average farm land assessment per acre is $39.90, which is above the average but not near the highest average for a county.

In this county horses and mules, the report shows, average $104 a head and cattle $43.40 each. The average assessed value of a hog is $8 and a sheep $5.40. The average in Rush county for automobiles is $245, whereas the average for the average for the state is $334. The average in the county on farm implements is $64 and household furniture $50.

The $26.30 an acre includes "the farmhouses, and all other such improvements." The state tax board does not accompany this report of assessed valuation, with any estimate of true valuation. Generally, however, the $26.30 will be accepted as not more than 40 per cent. of the true value—and possibly nearly 33 per cent. at least in some sections of the state.

Marion county heads the list at $62.50. Benton county, one of the best corn and grass counties in the state, stands next with $52. Boone county, once a county of swamps, chills and fever, has been redeemed until it is now in the "honor roll," the assessed valuation of the farms in the "State of Boone" being $45 per acre. Clinton county drops in at $44.50; Hancock county comes along at $43.40, while Shelby slips over at $42.2.

The average value of farm land for taxes is only $23.30 per acre, the values including all improvements. The value of the land in adjoining counties is also of local interest for comparison purposes. Decatur county, with its hills and hollows, stone roads and farms par excellence, averages, $32.1 per acre. Bartholomew, a county bounded by the worst in Decatur, a smidgen of Jennings and a lot of Brown, is assessed at $33.5 per acre, indicating there are many fine farms in the county. Johnson pays on $41.1. Brown county is pretty far down in the list at $5.1.

Automobiles "stack up" a little better than farm land, the average assessment of the machines being $33.4.

BOARD ELECTS OFFICERS.

The newly elected board of directors for the Rushville Social club have formed their organization by electing Frank Capp, president; Scott Buell, first vice-president; Frank Wilson, second vice-president; Will E. Havens, treasurer and Melvin Moor, secretary. The president has appointed the house committee as follows: Harrie Jones, Ab Denning and Walter Capp. The directors of the club are elected by the stock holders and they in turn select their own officials.

The women of the First Presbyterian church will give a buffet luncheon in the basement of the church Saturday noon, March 20. On that day teachers of the sixth district will be here for a meeting.

JAP WEBB DIES IN MARION

Former Local Man Succumbs From Apoplexy in Hospital There.

Word was received here this afternoon of the death of Jasper Webb in the hospital in Marion, Ind. Mr. Webb suffered a stroke of apoplexy yesterday and died about one o'clock this afternoon. He was born and reared here and is a brother of Selman, Sam and Bert Webb of this city. He was fifty-one years old. He had lived in Marion for several years. The remains will probably be brought here Monday afternoon for burial.

COUNTY ASSESSOR HAS NEW POSITION

He Becomes Inheritance Tax Appraisers Under Act Passed by Legislature.

BOOKS TURNED OVER TODAY

Henry Schrader, county assessor, is preparing to take up his duties as inheritance tax appraiser as provided in a law passed by the legislature and which contained an emergency clause. A. L. Riggs, who was appointed to the position by Judge Sparks on January 1, turned over the books to the county assessor today.

The law is not generally known here as no copies have ever been received. It is understood that the law was passed as an economical measure and the question of whether Mr. Schrader gets any additional salary for his work in this office is not known. Under the old law the inheritance tax appraisers received $5 for every day he worked. It is understood that under the new law the judge is compelled to appoint the county assessor. Mr. Schrader was not anxious to take this additional position but stated that if it was the law there was nothing else for him to do.

SOLD ALUMINUM TO MAYOR'S WIFE

That Caused Downfall of R. M. Lipscomb, Salesman, Who Had to Pay Peddler's License.

DOLLAR DOWN WITH ORDER

R. M. Lipscomb was arrested this afternoon on a charge brought under the city ordinance governing peddlers. Lipscomb was delivering aluminum ware that had been ordered the first part of the week. He collected at each house where an order had been taken upon the delivery and the city officials believe this constituted a sale.

Lipscomb, when he delivered the aluminum ware to Mrs. C. L. Bebout, did not know she was the wife of Mayor Bebout. It was in this manner that his arrest was caused. Lipscomb paid the license fee under protest and went ahead doing business. The local officials are determined to arrest every peddler hitting the city and if the city ordinance is wrong then it is up to the council to make the change. The local merchants have demanded the enforcement and from now on all peddlers failing to get a license will be arrested.

HARRY K. THAW WINS VICTORY

Jury Today Acquits Him of Charge of Conspiracy to Escape From Matteawan.

NEXT STEP IS IMPORTANT

Argument on Motion That May Bring Freedom For White's Slayer Will Start Monday.

(By United Press.)

New York, March 13.—Harry K. Thaw won a most important victory today in his battle for freedom when a jury acquitted him of the charge of conspiring to escape from the asylum for criminal insane at Matteawan. Argument will be heard Monday on a motion that may free the slayer of Stanford White.

The verdict was returned at 12:20 this afternoon after the jury had been out about nineteen hours. Thaw went back to the Tombs supremely confident. He asserted his attorneys would win the fight to have him returned to the jurisdiction of the new Hampshire courts—a move that would automatically give him freedom.

The ending of the conspiracy trial created a tumult in the court room. The sheriff of New York county and John Lanyon, head of a detective agency employed by the district attorney's office, exchanged blows under Justice Page's bench.

Lanyon was taken into custody and rushed to the Tombs on order of Justice Page. The sheriff, reported to have struck the first blow, was summoned to the justice's chamber.

LARGE CROWD AT MILROY

Bargains Offered by Merchants Attracts Many People.

A large crowd was attracted to Milroy today for the second day of the bargain sales offered by the merchants. Special bargains were offered by all the live merchants of the town. The plan was similar to the Big Wednesday idea worked so successfully in Rushville. Free picture shows and band concerts were on the program. One of the features this afternoon was the combination sale held by the Milroy Sales company. Thirty head of horses, ten head of cattle and thirty head of hogs were entered in the sale. Over forty automobiles were parked there at noon today and the crowd was the largest ever assembled in Milroy.

The teachers of Orange, Anderson and Walker township held their institute today in Homer.

A See-America Summer

This will be the greatest season Canadian and United States summer resorts have ever known.

Millions of dollars usually spent abroad will be distributed at home.

One great resort region on the Canadian border is already booked to capacity.

It is a season when newspaper advertising will be unusually effective, because more people will be studying the advertising to see where to go.

Summer resorts and railroads will find their newspaper appropriations unusually profitable.

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.
We have faith in our ability as rational designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer.

SEES WILDE'S INFLUENCE YET

fashion the long clinging gowns.
The first lecture of his American tour was in New York. She told how he turned the tables on some Harvard freshmen who appeared at his lecture in Boston dressed in the aesthetic costumes. Wilde appeared in evening clothes when he heard of the trick. She said he had the nerve to complement an audience of miners at Denver on their aesthetic costumes.

He said of America that its people lacked imagination, and little wonder at that because they set up as their national hero a man who never told a lie. Mrs. Brown said. As years went by he took up different phases of himself, the lecturer said.

His brilliant career came to a sad end when he was fined and sentenced to two years in a London prison just after he had become immensely popular by writing four brilliant plays. The first of the four was "Lady Windermere's Fan," which appeared in Indianapolis Friday and Saturday, January 15 and 16, in three performances, with Margaret Anglin as Mrs. Erlynne. The play was written twenty-two years ago. Wilde was convicted for corrupting the morals of some young friends. He died three years after he was released from prison.

Notice to Contractors

LET'S GET TOGETHER ON THIS SILO SITUATION

I want to talk to every farmer around here who is planning on building a Silo this year. I can help you choose the kind of a Silo you need to feed your stock. According to my way of thinking, there is just one real silo made—and that's the SAGINAW SAGINAW SILOS are Steel-built. They stand up against wind storms. They are air tight. They give sweet, clean succulent silage all the way through. A SAGINAW SILO will bring you more profit on the farm. By all means let me tell you about the SAGINAW SILO before you decide on a Silo. Let's get together.

$3000.00 FIRE PREVENTED

The House the Red Jacket Saved

Read This Letter:
"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap set length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect.

Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

Why People Read Ads

Suddenly ask twenty people why they read the advertisements in this paper every week and fifteen out of the twenty will probably hesitate, and stammer, and become more or less embarrassed before they can call to mind the real reason why they read the ads.

People buy this paper and read it for two very simple reasons—they want to know the news of their home community, and they want to know of the commercial advantages that are placed before them each week in its advertising columns.

This paper goes out six times each week to an enlightened people—to a people who are accustomed to think and act for themselves—to a people who know exactly what they want,

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your back hurts or Bladder is troubling you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

and want to know where they can get it.

Hence the natural course for them to pursue in their search for information is to turn to the advertising columns of the paper.

The live merchant knows this—recognizes the fact that he is catering to a people of high mental attainments, and shapes his business policy to meet their commercial desires.

Such merchants live, and prosper, and grow with the community.

Their advertisements are constantly placing the desirability of their goods before the buyer, and the merchant is thus brought into contact with the buyer through the medium of his advertisement.

The information contained in the advertisement saves the buyer the time of chasing from place to place in search of some article of which he stands in need.

It thus becomes a time saver to the buyer, and an impulse which spurs him on to a constant perusing of the advertising pages of the paper.

This habit of reading the advertisements is growing upon the people day by day, for the public realizes that it is the one and only sure means of reducing the "killing of time" to a minimum.

These are strenuous days, and time is money, and the well written advertisement becomes a thing of great value to the consumer as well as to the seller.

And of late years the consumer has become educated up to the standard of expecting the merchant who wants his trade to talk to him through the medium of his advertisement in the local paper.

And the merchant who talks thusly does the business.

STUNTS PLANNED FOR HURTY BANQUET

"Typhoid Mary" Will be Uninvited Guest at Feast Honoring Health Secretary Tonight.

MICROBE TO BE PRESENT, TOO

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., March 13.—Dr. J. N. Hurty today had rounded out twenty consecutive years of service as state health commissioner. Tonight his friends in Indiana and other states will unite at a banquet in the Claypool hotel to do him honor. Governor Ralston will serve as toastmaster and one of the distinguished visitors will be President Vaughn of the American Medical Association.

From some where word leaked out that the guests tonight would be surprised by some novel stunts complimentary to Dr. Hurty. It is said that when the diners have reached the meat course four stalwart waiters will march in bearing a huge dead microbe on a platter. Through the microbe's gizzard will be thrust a two-edged sword, and on the microbe's breast will be pinned the notice: "Dr. Hurty killed me."

"Typhoid Mary" will appear as an uninvited guest and will lay at each plate the sinister words "Typhoid-Death!" A huge microscope will appear. He will see "Typhoid-Mary," beckon to "Law" and together they

Will the Turks Be Driven Out of Europe?

With the British and French warships pounding Turkey's fortifications in the Dardanelles a new and, possibly, the most decisive phase of the war is at hand.

If the Allies' fleet should succeed in reaching Constantinople it is asserted that Turkey's powers of resistance would be near an end. The Black Sea would be open to the Allies, and their decisive victory would have a great effect upon the Balkan States.

Will the Great Mosque of St. Sophia Again Resound to the Chant of Christian Hymns After the Lapse of Centuries?

Will the Holy Places of Palestine Be Dominated by Christianity?

How such contingencies fill the imagination!

These and a host of other speculations arise as the world absorbs the news of the bombarding of the Dardanelles. You must read THE LITERARY DIGEST for March 13th and learn all the details of the forcing of these—practically the last strongholds of Mohammedanism in Europe.

But this is only one of the features that will prompt you to buy the DIGEST this week.

Treated in text and picture you will find also the public opinion of America and Europe as reflected in their statesmen's utterances, and in their newspaper press, on the Allies' Embargo on Neutral Imports Into Germany and Austria; America's Attitude Toward Britain's Blockade Declaration; Germany's Answer to Our Protest; the whole subject treated in the most impartial and comprehensive manner.

And to the peaceful pursuits of life this favorite weekly also devotes careful attention. All the important news in those subjects which lie close to humanity—Politics, Science, Invention, Religion, Art, Literature, Music, Drama, Sports, Trade, and Commerce, are presented in captivating style.

YOU WILL ENJOY IT---FOR THERE'S NOTHING BETTER

"THE LITERARY DIGEST is a time-saver, a money-saver, and a worry-saver. I know of nothing better in the periodical field, and I always recommend it to my friends."

We Have Our Spring Buggies In!

and they are ready for your inspection and we extend you an invitation to call and look them over this week as it will be to your interest to make your selection between now and the closing day of our Opening. We will explain why when you come in. We have the finest buggies ever placed on a sample floor and we want you to look them over. If you need a Storm Buggy this is the correct place to get what you want. We are not selling them at a reduction of $25.00, however, but we are selling them just the same as we have all season at $100.00. We have always said that our price was just as low at any time as the cut prices of our competitors, and we are always ready to do as we advertise. When a merchant advertises he has made a cut of $25.00 on a buggy use a little common sense in forming an opinion about this like the fellow that was in a state of Coma, and his friends thought he was dead, but before time to bury him he showed signs of life. When he rallied enough to talk his friends asked him how it seemed to be dead. "Dead," he exclaimed, "I knew all the time what was going on and I knew I wasn't dead, too, because my feet were cold and I was hungry and I knew that if I was in heaven I wouldn't be hungry and if I was in the other place my feet wouldn't be cold. Now if you will study out 99 per cent of the cut price argument you will see just about as much to them as there is in this little story. In other words, somebody has to be the goat, and the man that takes $25.00 off of a buggy during a sale must have a lot on when he is selling regular. Buy your buggies where the price is always the same and as low as any cut price sale ever advertised in Rush County. Let the other fellow be the goat this time.

NOT MUCH DOPE ON PIRATE CREW

Lineup of Clarke's Pittsburgh Team Remains Uncertain Despite all Kinds of Rumors

WAGNER MAY PLAY FIRST BASE

Rebel Oakes Has Plenty of Men for His Fed Team But They Are Not Known

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Pittsburgh, Mar. 12.—Clarke and his Pirates— and the Pirates before Clarke for that matter—have always been the last of the big league teams to go south when the robins began to chirp and the fans to inquire anxiously about the possibilities of a rise in the price of pop. Consequently, it was generally well into March before any definite idea as to the lineup of the team could be doped out.

This year promises to be an exception in that respect. The prospect is that it will be the middle of April before very much is known. Hans Wagner is going to play again. But where is uncertain. The aforesaid dopesters are certain that the Flying Dutchman will let his sails flap about the CC—meaning Cemetery Corner, alias first base. Barney Dreyfuss agrees with the dopesters to the extent that he thinks this possible. Fred Clarke opines there is more than a chance that Wagner may wag in that charming spot. As for Wagner—nobody home.

And there is still Hinchman, late of Columbus, O. Hinchman will play in right field. That is just as certain as it is that Wagner will play first place. As for the others: Carey will play in the field. Viox will play somewhere. Adams will and Gibson will catch. Several others will pitch and catch. And others will play bases and field positions. But who they are and what they will do are questions.

The Pirates this year is to be an "experimental team." What this means is conjectural. Pittsburghers hope that it means the Pirates will get somewhere above the bellline in the percentage column. Further than that they have been given no grounds for hope.

Whatever its record in the field may be, the first-to-last-in-two months aggregation has the long-distance pennant cinched again. It is the most-traveled team in the major league circuits, chiefly because of its half-way position between east and west on the map. Some fans say that were it not so long on the Pullman and diner suit it might be more than half-way in its position in the percentage column.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

However, they aren't running the team.

Careful, censoring of war-plans shows that the team will "do the usual" in the line playing at home on Saturday, jumping to some foreign country—Cincinnati, St. Louis or Chicago—for Sunday games and back for the beginning of an at-home series on Monday.

The rebels scored on the Pirates when it came to announcing their roster. While there doubtless will be some of the 25 whose names were given out by Manager Oakes in Pittsburgh whose service will be used, the Feds, just now, look like this: Rebel Oakes manager, Homer, La; Hugh Bradley, f. b. Worcester, Mass; David Jones, l. f., Detroit, Mich.; Edward Lennox, t. b. Camden, N. J.; James Savage, r. f. Plantsville, Conn.; Stephen Yerks, ss., Millvale, N. J.; Jack Lewis, s. b., Staubenville, O.; Edward Holly, ss., Rochester, N. Y.; Michael Menoskey, c. f., Flint, Mich.; Ken J. Rheam, f. b., Bellevue, Ill.; Ralph Mattis, c. f. Roxborough Pa.; Claude Berry, c., Lynn, Ind.; Elmer Knetzer, p., Greenville, Tex.; George Le Clair, p., Farnham, Quebec; Edward Konetchy, f. b., St. Louis; Wm D. Perritt p., Riceland, La.; Pat O'Connor, c., Windsor Locks, Conn.; Bunny Hearne p., Chapel Hill, N. C.; Frank Allen, p., Newborn, Ala.; Frank Delahanty, c., Cleveland; James Austin t. b., Cleveland; Martin Berghammer, ss., Pittsburgh.

Ed Konetchy, Pirate first baseman last year; "Fol" Perritt, pitcher for the St. Louis Nationals last year; Pat O'Connor, Bunny Hearne, Frank Allen, Jimmy Austin and Martin Berghammer are new to the Rebel list. Several are recruits picked up by Fedesents and it is said that several more will join the team when it goes south.

NEWCASTLE LOST TO EVANSVILLE

Team From This District Put Out of Running in First Game—Score Was 31 to 23.

HAAS TOO FAST FOR GUARDS

The Newcastle high school team, representing this district at the state tournament at Bloomington was defeated by the fast Evansville team 31 to 23. By defeating Newcastle Evansville looms up as a contender for the state championship honors. This is not because the team defeated Newcastle, as there were many teams in the tournament stronger than Newcastle, but because of the form displayed. The Newcastle guards were not fast enough for Haas, the Evansville center. Newcastle fought hard but the team was slightly out-classed. The game was marked by splendid dribbling, passing and a whole lot of fighting spirit.

MRS. ROB M'CRORY DIES AT GLENWOOD

Expires at Midnight After Illness of Only Three Days Suffering With Pneumonia.

LEAVES HUSBAND AND SON

Mrs. Robert McCrory, 68 years old, died last midnight at her home in Glenwood, after a three days' illness from pneumonia. Mrs. McCrory was well known in both Rush and Fayette counties and her death came as a surprise to her many friends. Mrs. McCrory was born in Fayette county, a short distance from Glenwood July 9, 1846. She is survived by her husband and one son, Harry McCrory.

The funeral services will be conducted Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Fairview church and burial will take place in the cemetery there. Friends may call Sunday any time after nine o'clock. The casket will not be opened at the church.

SALE CLOSES AT CAMBRIDGE CITY

Horse Auction is One of Most Successful in History and Stock is Exceptional.

SALES OF INTEREST HERE

The annual Lackey sale closed at Cambridge City yesterday afternoon. It was the most successful horse auction ever held at the Lackey barns. A large number of Rushville and Rush county men attended during the sale and bought and sold horses. The bidding at the closing day was said to be very lively. Nearly three hundred horses were sold and the stock offered was of exceptional quality. The following sales made the closing day will be of interest in Rush county.

Zulu Maid, a trotter, 2:16, by Major Guethlein, consigned by E. E. Post, Liberty, Ind., went to Dick Wilson, Rushville Ind., on a bid of $900.

Royal Ward, a pacer, 2:12 by John Ward, consigned by Clyarke Ganse, Carthage, Ind., went to J. T. Flack, Page, N. D., for $330.

SERIES OF ROADS ARE BEING BUILT

New Part of East Hill Cemetery to be Improved With Water-Bound Macadam Highways.

ONE GRADE WILL BE CUT DOWN

A series of water-bound macadam roads is being constructed in the new part of the East Hill cemetery. When completed the new part will have as good if not better driveways than the old section. The cemetery association has given the contract to Wilk and Company, with Will Dill as engineer in charge. The work has been in progress five days. The grading of two roads just south of the bridge is one of the important features. One grade will be cut down five feet and the dirt from this will be used to fill on the other.

The main road will be extended to the southwest entrance to the new addition. The engineer believed that the new section of the cemetery with the new roads will prove the most beautiful in East Hill. The cemetery board has also decided to plat additional ground in the new part and many more lots will be added to the cemetery.

Don't complain of that chafing when "Raymond Chap" will cure it.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring back color, thickness and lustre—Everybody is using it again.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

LAND QUESTION UP FOR HEARING

Commission on Industrial Relations
Will Take Up Important Things
at Dallas Meeting.

26 QUALIFIED WITNESSES

Bitter Struggle Has Been on For
Years Between Landlord and
Tenant Classes

BY CHAS. W. HOLMAN
(Special Agent in Charge, Dallas
Land Hearings, U. S. Commission on
Industrial Relations.)
(Written for United Press.)

Dallas, Tex., Mar. 13.—Is a pernicious landlordism springing up in America? Is a permanent tenant farmer class to be looked for as a development of the coming years? Or will corporations, farm operations and the real farmer class will be unskilled laborers working in large gangs on "efficiency systems?" These are among the important questions that will be asked by the United States Commission on Industrial Relations in the hearings on the American land question, scheduled to begin here Monday morning. The hearings will continue for five days and 25 qualified witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear.

In some ways this will be the most unique of the commission's hearings. It is the first time that any official body of the federal government has recognized the importance of the United States developing a national policy with regard to the land just as older nations and the colonies of the British empire have already done. It marks the advent of the tenant farmer as a recognized part of the industrial struggle, classifying him with labor as a laborer. It calls for realization by the general public that in the United States there is a rapid concentration of ownership of lands into the hands of a limited number and that absentee landlordism is growing apace. It will develop with startling vividness the fact that it is not so much how to "get back to the land" that will trouble the people as how to get back the land. The hearings have been set for the Southwest, because in this section the land problem has reached its most acute stage in America, and a reaction against landlordism has already begun. In the Southwest also the tenant farmers have been increasing twice as fast as the home-owning farmers, and there are a number of counties of almost entirely white population where the percentage of tenant farmers to the whole will run higher than 68.

For several years Texas and Oklahoma have been the scene of a silent, but bitter struggle between landlord and tenant classes, and a decided movement has come about to raise the rents. The tenants have resisted and formed class conscious unions to resist what they have come to regard as landlord encroachments. In Texas alone, there are about 236,000 tenant families, three-fourths of whom are native whites.

The commission will study the relation of the floating tenant farmer to the flating or casual laborer. The body will also take up such questions as the fleeing of the working population on farms by exorbitant interest charges, the prevalence of violence, strikes, peonage, interracial competition among whites, negroes, Mexicans and other immigrants of foreign extraction.

The movement of farm labor, and better methods of distributing it, the influence of modern farm machinery, the possibilities of successful farming operations on a large scale, are among the subjects upon which the commissioners will seek light. And in addition to the industrial issues, the commissioners will endeavor to obtain a vivid conception of the actual tenant conditions, and the tenant's point of view, by means of life stories of tenant farmers themselves.

Witnesses have been chosen to represent the points of view of the militant tenant farmer, the conservative tenant, the landlord, the public official the disinterested observer and the trained economist. The following witnesses have been chosen for the set hearings:

Monday, March 15.—Charles W. Holman, Madison, Wisconsin, special investigator of the land question for the commission, and member of the staff of the University of Wisconsin. Holman was a resident of Texas for 19 years and for seven years was staff correspondent for a large farm journal of the southwest.

E. W. Kirkpatrick, McKinney, Tex., president of the Texas Industrial Congress former president of the Texas Farmers' Congress, connected with a large nursery concern, owner of farming lands, and pioneer organizer of farmers associations. He began life as a tenant farmer. He is today a landlord.

James E. Ferguson, Austin, Texas, Governor of Texas. Born in Bell county, on a farm, for many years a banker, he became governor, as a result of a sensational campaign in which the land question was a dominant issue. Advocated a law to legalize a fixed rent of one-fourth of the cotton and one-third of the grain where landlords furnish only land and house. He is president of a bank, owner of a ranch in Bosque county, and a landlord.

R. W. Getzendaner, Waxahachie, Texas; Larger holder of lands in Ellis county, where the landlord and tenant struggle has reached a tenacity.

Prof. W. E. Leonard, Austin, Texas. Members of the department of political economy, University of Texas. Special investigator for the university of landlord and tenant conditions.

Arthur LeSeu, Ft. Scott, Kans., President People's College, and a prominent socialist.

Tuesday, March 16.—Prof. Charles B. Austin, Austin, Texas; graduate student of the University of Wisconsin, now head of the welfare bureau of the University of Texas Extension division. Has made a field study of landlord and tenant conditions in certain counties of Texas.

Judge E. O. Meitzen, Hallettsville, Texas; Publisher of the New Era, and former secretary of the Renters' Union of America. He is actively identified with the land struggle.

W. S. Noble, Rockdale, Texas, Tenant farmer. Now secretary of the Land League, the successor to the Renters' Union. He was a candidate for lieutenant governor of Texas in 1914 on the socialist platform.

Pat Nagle, Kingfisher, Oklahoma; Lawyer, editor of the militant organ "The Tenant Farmer," representative of tenant interests.

Wednesday, March 17.—E. J. Giddings, Oklahoma City, Okla.; A lawyer, former attorney for a tenant farmer organization to resist usury practices, ran for attorney general of Oklahoma with a usury plank to make usury matters a criminal court proceedings, and is identified with organized labor.

W. L. Thurman, Sulphur, Okla.; Representative of militant tenant farmer interests, a farmer, and organizer of the socialist party.

J. Tom Pagitt, Dallas, Texas. Owner of a large tract of farming land in Coleman county, Texas, on which there are a number of tenant families.

C. A. Rives, Ryan, Okla., former manager of Pagitt property in Coleman county, Texas.

W. H. Faircloth, Leaday, Texas; formerly tenant farmer on Pagitt estate in Coleman county, Texas.

Thursday, March 19 Emilio Flores, San Antonio, Tex., sec'y. of Mexican Protective society, an organization to help Mexican laborers and to protect them against peonage and mal treatment.

Prof. Chas H. Alvord, Gregory, Texas; superintendent of farms, of the Coleman Fulton Pasture company, which represents the Charles P. Taft industrial interests in Texas. Was formerly a professor of dairy husbandry, in the Agricultural and Mechanical college of Texas, College Station.

Joseph F. Green, of Gregory, Tex., general manager of the Taft ranch interests in Texas, also lessor or large ranching property in South Texas.

Dale Walker, Gregory, Texas; Owner of a cotton gin.

Prof. L. H. Haney, Austin, Tex.; Head of the department of economics, University of Texas and author of works in the field of economics. He is a student of Texas credit conditions.

GIVES DEFENDANT SOME MORE TIME

Special Judge Miller Allows W. O. Andrews Another Change to Make Showing in Court.

HE IS CITED FOR CONTEMPT

The contempt proceedings brought by Hazel Andrews against Wm. Orval Andrews was heard today in the circuit court. B. F. Miller was appointed special judge to hear the case as Judge Sparks was counsel in the original divorce suit. Judge Miller heard the evidence and continued the hearing until March 27 in order to give the defendant time to make a better showing.

Mrs. Andrews was granted a divorce from him, and according to the decree, was to receive the sum of $1.50 a week for the support of their child. She alleges that he has paid to the clerk of the court the sum of $14 and that now he owes her $67. Andrews was cited to appear and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court.

By agreement Judge Sparks found for James A. Bowman against the estate of Mary J. Bowman in the sum of $1,100 and assessed the costs against the estate.

CROWDS TODAY SET SOME NEW RECORDS

People Throng Oneal Brothers Store at Second Day of Annual Opening.

MINSTREL SHOW ENTERTAINS

One of the largest crowds ever in attendance at the annual openings of Oneal Brothers thronged the place this afternoon. The interior of the large implement store was arranged in an attractive manner, showing the displays to great advantage. During the afternoon Ed Folsom of Indianapolis staged a minstrel show with a troupe which he imported from Indianapolis.

Every known farm implement was on display and a large business resulted from the two days' display. Music was furnished this afternoon from a player piano and soft drinks were passed out to all attending. The firm expected today's sales to break all records.

MYSTIC CHANGES HANDS.
